

Fine Print for Competitions

Closest to Pin

- $5 for three balls
- You can buy as many turns as you like, but you can only get up to three places in the final
- If you buy six balls at one time in the closest to the Pin you get one free putt, that must be completed on the same day
- Hitting onto the nine hole, 9th green from front of club house. Distance 133 meters approx.
- To qualify your ball must rest fully within the circle
- During qualifying If you hit the BNZ Pole you win $20 WGC voucher plus three more balls. Hitting the pole does not get you a place in the final unless the ball rests fully within the circle
- Final is 14 March commencing at 5:30pm
- The format of the final will be dependent on the number of qualifiers and will be at the discretion of the organisers. The concept will be 1st,2nd,3rd based on closest to the Pin.
- Each finalist can only win one prize
- Closest Non Belmont member Prize;
 - Closest non member to the Pole during qualifying wins a membership to 30 December 2015.
 - A non member is anyone that has not been a Belmont member since January 2014.
 - As with all competitors, you can only win one prize, so if the winner of the non member prize gets 1st,2nd or 3rd in the final they must take the choice of the prize or the free membership
